Re: Request for refund to Deposit Account No. 010535

Dear Sir or Madam:

We are requesting a refund to our Deposit Account No. 010535 in the amount of $2150.00 due to a claim calculation error on the part of the USPTO in USSN 10/559,595. Attached please find a copy of our Request for Corrected Filing Receipt filed on August 2, 2006. In addition, please find the Transmittal Letter and four (4) pages of claims filed on November 30, 2005 in support of our refund request. We authorized payment of a total of 27 claims with 3 independent claims; however, we were charged for a total of 50 claims with 8 independent claims incorrectly. Therefore, we respectfully request a refund to our deposit account at your earliest convenience.

Thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter.

Very truly yours,

AMYLIN PHARMACEUTICALS, INC.

What is claimed is:

1. A pharmaceutical composition for transmucosal administration of an exendin or exendin analog, comprising an exendin or an exendin analog, a cationic polyamino acid, and a buffer; wherein at the pH of the composition the buffer does not cause precipitation of the cationic polyamino acid and has a mono-anionic or neutral net charge; and wherein the transmucosal absorption of the exendin or exendin analog is increased relative to the absorption of the exendin or exendin analog in the absence of the polyamino acid.
